VOL. IV. NO. 76. CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Of the preliminary proceedings that resulted in the ruling off of Eddie Jones and Ollie Johnson the Breeder and Sportsman says:

"A score or more of owners, bookmakers and track employes were examined and Johnson and Jones were offered immunity from punishment if they would reveal the names of the person or persons with whom it is charged they have been doing business, but both declared themselves innocent of complicity in any jobbery.

"Jockey Spencer, though present, was not called upon.

"Among the turfmen called before the meeting and asked to give any information that would tend to purify the game were: Hugh Jones, John Coleman, W. Beverly, James Davis, Jimmy Coffey, Ab Stemler, Barney Schreiber, W. B. Magrane, S. C. Hildreth, William Fitch, H. Hoffman, Don Cameron and T. H. Boyle.

"No testimony of any great importance, bar that of one bookmaker, was gleaned. This one penciler stated that on December 22, 1897, Ollie Johnson approached him with a proposition to 'lay up against' the horse Satsuma, to be ridden by Eddie Jones. He declined the offer. James Coffey, the horse's trainer, was told previous to this particular race that he was not going to get a ride, and so informed the judges. Jones was warned and Satsuma won the race. The stewards also said they were in receipt of several letters which did not tend to help the case against the accused riders and Johnson."

Bangle will make his first start of the season at Latonia, Mr. Gardner says, and from there he goes East to run in the Realization. They intended sending the colt to Memphis in February, but about the time they were ready to put him on the cars it was discovered that one of his ankles was swollen. The trouble soon yileded to treatment, and Bangle was sent to Louisville in the care of Pat Dunne. The colt will be turned over to Carroll Reid in May. The Gardner stable is now at Memphis, but part of the string will be sent to race at the Nashville meeting, returning to the Bluff City in time to fill its engagement at that track.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

"Buck" Franklin, who trains for Baker & Gentry, thinks their four-year-old colt Fleischmann, by Harry O'Fallon—Lady Royster, has a royal chance of winning the Suburban for which he will be especially pointed. He claims the colt is fully able to do a mile in 1:39. Fleischmann, it will be recalled, took Ornament's measure at Oakley last year in the Buckeye Stakes. The brother of Lehman and Simon W ran a great race on that occasion, but unfortunately he pulled up lame. Fleischmann's other start last year was in the Oakley Derby, when he ran third to Ornament and Tillo. His race in this event was such a sparkling one that it was predicted he would beat Ornament in the Buckeye Stakes, which prediction was verified.

GEYSER'S GREAT RECORD.

Geyser is an exceedingly good horse this year. His defeat of Fleur de Lis yesterday makes makes him out to be as good as any horse now racing in California in point of speed at least. His time—1:26½—ties the Ingleside record made by Tea Rose III last November. In her race Tea Rose III had twelve pounds off the scale. Yesterday Geyser had but five pounds off. Since he was taken to California last fall Geyser has not been beaten.

Geyser has run seven races in California, all handicaps or purses, and has won all seven, netting $2,500 in value. He is evidently a colt of great speed and much stamina. Last winter Ed Corrigan told the writer that, barring Recreation, Geyser had more speed than any horse in California.

CALIFORNIA RIDERS CLASSED.

Below is given the San Francisco Breeder and Sportman's latest idea of the riding ability in California:

First Class—Tod Sloan.

Second Class—W. Martin, C. Thorpe, Jesse Conley, A. Clayton, Piggott.

Third Class—H. Martin, Clawson, Spencer, E. Jones.

Fourth Class—H. Shields, Hennessey, Tuberville, C. Sloan.

Fifth Class—J. Woods, O'Connor, Dorsey, H. Brown, Gray.

Sixth Class—Stevens, McDonald, VanKuren, W. Taylor, Reidy, Holmes, McNichols, R. Narvaez.

NEW ORLEANS JOCKEYSHIP.

The ability of the riders at New Orleans is calculated as the boys are grouped in the table below:

First class—T. Burns.

Second class—Knapp, Barrett, Scherrer, Caywood.

Third class—Hirsch, Dupee, Thompson, Songer, Combs, Wilhite, Aker, N. Turner, Newcom, Sullivan, Beauchamp.

Fourth Class—Warren, C. Clay, P. Clay, L. Smith, Walker.

Fifth Class—Lynch, Peterman, Lines, Reitz, Gilmore, Frost, Snell, Guitiers, Gatewood, Sheppard.

"OUTLAW" RIDING FORM.

In the table below is given the idea of DAILY RACING FORM's handicappers as to the ability of the riders in action upon the south-eastern tracks denominated as "outlaws":

First Class—Rigby, Nelson, Cunningham, Asburn, Burckholder, Patton.

Second class—Coudrier, Narvaez, McIntyre, A. Dorsey, Chevalier, Ellis.

Third class—Johnson, Nostrand, McDermott, Neel, Madison, J. Dorsey.

Fourth class—McKnight, J. Moore, C. Hueston, Houlahan, Campbell, E. Flynn.

NEW ORLEANS OFFICIALS ACT.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 29.—On account of the suspicious and unsatisfactory performances of Albert S, Laird & Hand were prohibited from running horses at the present meeting, either as a firm or individuals. Jockey L. Smith was suspended from riding for the remainder of meeting, one day,

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A special note was sent out to betting corners from San Francisco yesterday about the odds over Linstock, whose post odds were 9 to 20, as printed in DAILY RACING FORM. The slap-dash cards, which report racing results in a most woeful way, quoted Linstock at 9 to 10 for the last Ingleside race of Monday.

Fred Pfeffer, Chicago, Ill.—Col. Jack Chinn was the starter. The race was the Washington Handicap at Garfield Park, September 5, 1891. Adalia won. Gorman and Yo Tambien were left at the post. Twelve went to the post. Farine was second and Jim Murphy third.

Bob Tucker is not at all satisfied that Presbyterian is the superior of Isabey and thinks the Cumberland Prize will prove this next Saturday. He says that in the race for the Crescent City Derby, Isabey was so much interfered with that when the horses started for the run home Presbyterian was fully six lengths to the good of Isabey, and although Isabey was interfered with and had to pull around one or two horses, he was beaten only a length and a half at the wire. This, he claims, is proof that with a fair field and no interference Isabey will demonstrate his superiority over Presbyterian.

INGLESIDE FORM CHART.

Winner—Ch. f, by Nomad—Sweet.

Start good. Won in a smart drive. Toluca not much the best. She was well handled and had a clear path. Winifred was coming at the finish. She is more than a fair filly, fit and will do best over a route. Humidity is not much. She ran her race and is jerky as to speed. La Parasseuse is only a sprinter. Neither Ocorona nor Amoltepec ran their races.

4810 SECOND RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $350. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—B. g, by Leonatus—Rosa Vertner.

Start good. Won in a gallop. Mild drive for place. Vertner was far the best, lucky and can go the route. His price was false. Scratch had a lot of speed. He failed at the end. Was used too much and may go further, if well handled. Zacatosa was also killed off by pacemaking. Watch San Laredo. He can do better. Was badly ridden today and closed in the most resolute kind of way. Pass was hardly bridlewise.

Scratched—Prince Will, 108.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:16, 1:43, 2:08½.

Winner—B. g, 8, by The Bard—Heel and Toe.

Start good. Won ridden out. Satyr should have won. He was most unlucky, cut off on first turn and as he was closing on his horses about the turns for the home run. He finished like a lion. Song and Dance was beautifully managed and ridden. He had clear sailing too and was pointed for the race. Tulare stopped. The route was too long for him. Cripple was cut off on first and stretch turns and in the back stretch. Mamie G was short. She can go a route. Benamela did not like the track and sulked. Clarencio is of no present account.

Scratched—Twinkle Twink, 100; Lode Star, 105; Fort Augustus, 105; Claudius, 112.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:02, 1:14½, 1:26½.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Ben Ali—Hot Springs.

Start good. Won rather handily. Sloan drew a fine finish, after a vigorous bit of riding to get up. Geyser is a speed marvel. He had good racing luck. Fleur de Lis was poorly managed and ran her race. She is dead game. Griggs was messed about and used too much. Salisbury was short and outrun in consequence. Rubicon seems to be of little present account.

4813 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $350. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 25, 50½, 1:03, 1:16, 1:41¾.

Winner—Ch. g, 3, by St. Savior—Ella T.

Start good. Won easily; second driving. Suscol was fortunate, well ridden and is fit. Hooker closed strong. Watch him. He is good and a fair horse. Was well ridden and met no interference. Rosormonde was winning when she bolted. She was best. Throw out race and tab her. Twinkler closed strong. Will do best at a route. Was cut off on first and stretch turns. The rest, outside Rees, who showed some early speed, were outclassed.
